Exhibiting Artist Agreement

1. I understand Arlington Center for the Arts keeps a 30% commission from all sales.
2. I understand that by submitting my work I give Arlington Center for the Arts permission to use these images for promotional purposes for the duration of the exhibition.
3. I understand that Arlington Center for the Arts carries no insurance for loss or damage to artwork in the exhibition, nor assumes liability for the same. I am releasing Arlington Center for the Arts from liability for loss or damage to my artwork.
4. I understand I must pay my submission fee upon submitting my application.
5. I understand that I must deliver my artwork by the stated deadline. All of my art must be wired and ready to hang. If I need an accommodation I must specify so in writing with at least a week's notice. I understand ACA does not accept work on sawtooth hangers. All 2D work needs to be framed with the exception of works on stretched canvas. I will contact staff and give specific instructions before submitting my work if it has special hanging requirements.
6. I understand that I must pick up my artwork by the stated deadline. Artwork must be picked up within 90 days unless other arrangements are made in writing to the Arlington Center for the Arts. Artwork that is not picked up after 90 days will become the property of ACA which will retain the right to use, donate, or remove it at its sole discretion.
